HIBERNIANS.
What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.
Division 1 will soon have a degree team that will be always ready for action.
Big Six of Indianapolis has elected Bart Kavanaugh its President for the coming term.
Thirty-five candidates received the degrees at the semi-annual initiation of the Ladies' Auxiliary at Indianapolis.
Division 4 will meet Monday night at Bertrand Hall, the last Hibernian gathering of the year. All who can should attend.
The Ladies' Auxiliary juvenile division of St. Paul is progressing rapidly. Starting some time ago with a membership of twenty-five, it has nearly 100 now.
Every member of the order is invited to the home coming of Division 1 at the meeting on the first Tuesday in January. All former members are included.
The Kentucky Irish American wishes one and all a merry Christmas and happy new year, and prays that you may be spared to enjoy many returns of the glad season.
Division 2 will next meet in its new home, St. William's Hall, Thirteenth and Oak, on the first Thursday in January. There will then be a house warming, when all Hibernians will be welcome.
During their annual session in Washington the national officers of the Ladies' Auxiliary visited Mount Vernon and placed a wreath of American laurel and shamrock on the tomb of Washington.
Through the Kentucky Irish American State President Patrick J.
Welsh extends his greeting, and wishes for the National, State, county and division officers and all members of the Ancient Order a merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous new year.

IRELAND IN CABINET.
Premier Asquith stated in the House of Commons last week that after the home rule bill had been passed there would be a minister who would answer for Ireland, but it was impossible to say just now what his precise designation would be.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.
Late News That Will Interest
Members Here and Elsewhere.
Omaha Knights began their bowling tournament Monday night.
The council at Auburn, N. Y., added twenty-one to its ranks last week.
The Knights at Spearville, Kas., have had the rectory there wired for electric lighting.
LeMoyne Council at Syracuse has opened a pool tournament and bowling league contest for its members.
The Knights of Providence, R. I., tendered a brilliant reception to Mayor-elect Joseph Gahner, who is a member of Finnegan Council.
Bishop Chartrand visited Indianapolis Council last week and promised the Knights a special sermon some Sunday afternoon in January.
Covington and Newport Councils had a most successful joint initiation.
J. Madison Walsh, of Washington, Ind., and staff worked the third degree.
Indiana Knights are indeed active.
Next month councils will be instituted at Kentland and Fowler and initiations held at Logansport, Lafayette and Hammond.
When the recent initiation took place at Norton, Kas., the long line of men from the church to the hall, four blocks in length, made a great impression and caused many commentary expressions.
Last Sunday week twenty-five new members were initiated into the ranks at Omaha. The event was a most pleasant one and was attended by State and county officers, Arlington Hall being crowded.
The council at Lancaster, Ohio, last Sunday entertained about 1,000 Knights from Columbus, Chillicothe, New Lexington, Zanesville, Newark, Delaware and other Ohio councils.
Seventy-five candidates received the degrees.

MOURN HIS DEATH.
Tuesday evening Miss Mary Sheridan received announcement of the death of the Very Rev. Father J. P.
Moran, O. P., Supreme Spiritual Director of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America. Father Moran was pastor of Holy Rosary church in Minneapolis and was widely known throughout the country. Miss Sheridan, who is a member of the Supreme Board, has not yet received the particulars relating to his death.
